DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE HAM TREE

The ham tree grows in Timbuctoo, and it bears nice juicy hams for you, at least this report is given out in a funny show that goes about. The story is told in rhyme and song, and some folks won't believe it long; but there's a song more popular still, entitled "Aurora Paint Fills the Bill." Whenever your house needs repainting use Aurora Mixed Paint.

Col. Stallings Ardent Glasscock Champion

COL. A. R. STALLINGS.

Col. A. Robert Stallings, of Parsons, Tucker county, is one of West Virginia's ablest young sons. He is a strong lawyer, an eloquent and convincing speaker and has demonstrated unusual powers of leadership in the state legislature.

When the cleavage came in the Republican party last July Colonel Stallings allied himself with the "court house Republicans" and was placed upon their ticket as candidate for attorney general.

Nothing could shake his determination to "fight it out" until the final settlement which he, with others, conceived to be the fulfillment of the chief aims.

Then he took up the cause of the re-united party and now he is as vigorously supporting the ticket headed by Mr. Glasscock as any Republican in the state.

Col. Stallings is a West Virginia University graduate and in common with most students came to know Mr. Glasscock at Morgantown and, therefore, to respect and admire him. His home county, Tucker, is in excellent condition and, according to Col. Stallings, can be relied upon for the usual majorities.

It is doubtful if any musical cartoon comedy of recent seasons contains as much genuine comedy as may be found in the latest offering, "Panhandle Pete," founded on George Mannus's New York World comedy cartoon, which will appear Monday, October 26, at the Grand opera house.

As a laugh provoker this presentation is about as successful as any entertainment of its kind ever seen in this city and it has the additional recommendation that some unusually artistic singing and dancing furnishes the dancing features of this, the latest and best of all newspaper cartoon comedies ever published by Mr. Jas. Gorman, who as a dancing master evokes memories of all other dancing masters. On the whole, "Panhandle Pete" is worth an evening of any one's time.

It is reported that James K. Hackett is going into vaudeville with a scene from one of his plays in which a sensational sword fight is the climax. Arthur Hoops will be in the production.

Misses Cassin and Collins, two of the "Yama Yama Girls," with the "Three Twins" last summer, have joined hands this season and are one of the vaudeville features with the Harder-Hall Stock Company to be seen here soon.

Nance O'Neill is to appear in a Shakespearean revival.

Dustin Farnum is making a success with "The Squaw Man" in San Francisco.

DON'T WAIT

Profit by a Clarksburg Citizen's experience.

Mrs. J. A. McClaskey, living at 744 Mulberry street, Clarksburg, W. Va., says: "The results that followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in Mr. McClaskey's case were very satisfactory. He had been troubled for some time with pains in his back and a serious kidney derangement. The trouble was always greatly aggravated if he attempted to stoop or lift and if he remained in one position for a long time his back would ache terribly. The attack became more pronounced as time went on and he began to suffer from severe dizzy spells which would last for ten days or three weeks at a time. The secretions from his kidneys were also unnatural in appearance and very irregular in action. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills he procured a box at Wells & Haymaker's drug store, and since using them he has felt much better and stronger, and the difficulty with the kidney secretions has been greatly relieved."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States.
